

Anthony Mgbanwune, M.Sc

SENIOR CIVIL/STRUCTURAL ENGINEERING & PROCUREMENT
PROFESSIONAL

Details

Enugu
Nigeria
+234 8069467434
tonytony43221@gmail.com

Skills

Engineering Project Management

Engineering Design & Review

Procurement and Construction
Management

Risk Assessment

Building & Waste Infrastructure

Contract Management

HSE Reviews

Communication & Leadership
Skills

Client Relations

Quality Assurance

Technical Assistance

Languages

English

Profile

A high performing Civil & Structural Engineer with considerable experience working on geotechnical, structural, highways, drainage and flood prevention projects. Anthony possesses a strong desire to work on exciting and diverse projects that saves and changes lives. He is committed to providing high-quality service delivery to every client and is currently looking for employment in an open, friendly and professional environment.

Employment History

Supervisory Civil Engineering Consultant, Edified Spaces Projects: Enugu State San Savana Estate Development; Godfrey Okoye University Auditorium Complex, Enugu, Nigeria

MARCH 2017 – PRESENT

- Establish and sustain an effective working relationship with key government officials and clients.
- Ensures compliance with environmental commitments, including proper permitting and licensing at all projects and ensures compliance with hazardous materials regulations and policies.
- Develop concept design, design calculations and reports, drawings, schematics, masterplans and technical specifications in compliance with international standards.
- Engage and manage external design consultants such as architects, engineers, and surveyors.
- Evaluate the functionality of redesigned processes and provide expert advice on available solutions and technical changes.
- Serves as supervisor to employees engaged in professional, technical, and administrative activities in support of project management, pre-construction, construction, and contract administration.
- Administer contract documentation, provide technical advice on safe designs, and prepares reports.
- Finalize design process and manage the tender process for facilities in other locations.
- Conduct external market research, frequently meet with clients to discuss their technical and engineering needs and conduct site visits.

Site Engineer, Project: Kogi State Road Construction, Government of Kogi State, Lokoja, Nigeria

JANUARY 2017 – JUNE 2018

- Managed site and structure inspections, data collection and analyses, traffic order making, works/construction inspection and supervision to progress scheme design, development and construction.
- Lead design reviews and preparation of plans for the development of complete road construction or reconstruction plans and specifications, including recommended route locations, minimum design standards, laying grades and computing quantities of materials.
- Developed project budgets, determined right-of-way widths to be acquired and wrote legal descriptions for their acquisition.
- Collaborated with Highway and Transportation Personnel to explain engineering requirements to property owners for right-of-way requirements and purchases and ensured that legal documents are properly executed.
- Assigned work to survey crew and other engineering staff; provided estimates for all types of highway projects including structures and pavement design.

- Coordinated the project with State engineering staff/consultants to meet their minimum specifications; and provided advice and estimates for local projects.

Engineering Consultant & Procurement Manager, Ozulyn Nigeria, Limited
Projects: Anambra State Secretariat Complex Waste and Drainage
Construction; Rehabilitation of United Bank of Africa Offices, Anambra
State, Nigeria

MAY 2016 – AUGUST 2017

- Provided strategic planning for highly complex and controversial projects and exercised management of these projects.
- Drafted, standard and detailed specifications as needed, finalized designs and ensured completion, accuracy and compliance of reports to standard engineering norms.
- Completed designer risk assessments, conducted investigations, inspected drainage sites, and carried out designer reports.
- Coordinated meetings among multiple offices and stakeholders, requiring creative and unusual solutions for project success.
- Assigned work to subordinates and team leaders, establishing short and long-term objectives and priorities.
- Provided advisory services in the planning and design process, and engineering management services for construction, sustainment, and decommissioning projects.
- As a procurement manager, frequently negotiated field level agreements and contracts.
- Responsible for evaluating products, services and suppliers and ensured purchases were of high-quality and cost-efficient.
- Supervised employees and all the activities purchasing department and liaised with key company staff to determine their needs.
- Developed and implemented strategies for procurement, storage and distribution of goods and maintained stock levels.

Government Supervisor, St. Peters Catholic Church, Imo State, Nigeria

JANUARY 2014 – APRIL 2016

- Inspected this government-funded project and ensured contractors were in compliance and adhered to specifications for construction projects.
- Obtained planning and building regulation approval and inspected structures to evaluate the conditions and foundations.
- Analyzed configurations of the basic components of structures and ensured soundness.
- Successfully advised and assisted decision-makers in project evaluation and developed evaluation reports highlighting key findings, conclusions, and recommendations.
- Formulated improvements and ensured that adequate policies and procedures were in place for tracking and evaluating subsequent projects.
- Identified and informed management of problems that require their attention. Developed and recommended technical solutions to address problems.

Research Fellow, Department of Building/Quantity Surveying Partnership Programme, Ebonyi State University, Ebonyi State, Nigeria

OCTOBER 2010 – MARCH 2014

- Conducted market research, prepared solicitation packets, analyzed data and provided access to all experimental data for the faculty researcher and/or supervisor.
- Prepared materials for submission to granting agencies and foundations.

- Requested equipment or supplies necessary for the project and responded to project-related emails.
- Attended project meetings, seminars and prepared articles, reports, and presentations.
- Summarized project results and prepared progress reports for the department.

Procurement Consultant and Tender Evaluator, Jez International Limited, Ebonyi State, Nigeria

MAY 2010 – SEPTEMBER 2010

- Developed the bid and tender strategy, standardized tender documentation, coordinated and obtained approvals.
- Maintained a list of qualified vendors, especially as related to planned tenders and compiled various inputs to create a more complete tender proposal.
- Monitored deadlines and evaluated contract negotiation.
- Liaised with the User Department on an ongoing basis with respect to requirements and status.
- Coordinated with vendors in conjunction with the tender process as required, i.e, non-disclosure agreements, and confirmation of interest.
- Reviewed tender documentation packages comprising of Instructions to Bidders, Contract Form, General Terms Conditions, Bid Forms for accuracy and completeness.
- Maintained internal procurement documentation related to the tendering process, including recording management approval related to tendering and contracting actions.
- Maintained tender files, prepared status reports and prepared correspondences to internal departments, bidders and contractors.
- Assisted with the development of procurement software applications for the project implementation team.
- Liaised and coordinated activities with Financial Services in view of the developing and changing needs and opportunities within the company.

Site Supervisor; Project: Mouka Foam Factory, Jez International Limited, Enugu, Nigeria

JUNE 2004 – AUGUST 2009

- Supervised, coordinated and scheduled the daily activities of construction trades-people, apprentices and labourers.
- Coordinating work activities with subcontractors and established methods to meet work schedules.
- Resolved work problems and recommended measures to improve productivity and product quality.
- Facilitated the training of new staff on roles and responsibilities, safety procedures and company policies.
- Ensured standards for safe working conditions are observed
- Recommended personnel actions such as promotions and awards to high-performing staff.

Civil Engineer Consultant; Project: Parklane General Hospital, Jez International Limited, Enugu, Nigeria

MAY 2003 – JULY 2005

- Represented company interest at meetings with clients from various government agencies and maintained effective client relationships.
- Conducted external market research, troubleshooting, implemented technical solutions and ensured consistency.
- Prepared justifications, scopes of work, cost estimates and requisitions for changes.

- Monitored the work performed by sub-contractors and shared frequent updates with senior management.
- Conducted after-service site visits and prepared status reports that informed decision-making.
- Provided technical assistance to stakeholders and reviewed proposals for feasibility and cost-effectiveness.

Education

Master of Science, Structural Engineering, University of Nigeria, Nsukka

SEPTEMBER 2005 – MAY 2007

Bachelor of Science, Civil Engineering (Hons), University of Nigeria, Nsukka

SEPTEMBER 1997 – MAY 2002

Design Software Knowledge

Civils 3D Modelling

AutoTrack

PDS Sign/Line

SketchUp

WINDES

References

References available upon request